Dear Fellow Officers:

I know I said it a bunch during this weekend, but I wanted to extend one more deep thank you to each of you for helping make this weekend a huge success. From Meg and Charlie's front end planning and logistics and mentoring, to all of the exec board members taking on responsibilities throughout the conference--it may not have seemed like you were asked to do all that much, but believe me, it all added up to making the conference flow smoothly and feel cohesive. So thank you for being so game to jump in and be a huge presence at the conference. Thank you for being willing to do whatever was needed at any given moment. And thank you for even the small gesture of asking me if I needed help and if I was okay. That meant a lot to me.

Now that I know how this goes, I'm looking forward to the next ones! I think these are gonna just keep getting better and better.

Now, to SLEEP!

xoxo
Jonathan
