

TEACHING OBSERVATION RECORD FOR FULL-TIME INSTRUCTORS

Evaluatee (please print): STACY ALLEY DN310 Semester: Fall 2015

Evaluator: Dr. Steven Burch

PREFACE TO OBSERVER:

Notations in the boxes on the classroom visitation forms attached represent only a part of this observation. No observation will be complete unless you also provide thoughtful, complete written comments on the instructor's performance in the spaces provided.

You should certainly comment about areas that need improvement, and you should also recognize the strengths and the special qualities of the observee in your written comments.

Please make sure your observation is concluded and signed by yourself and the observee by the twelfth week of the semester.

Course Content	Satisfact. or Better	Satisfact. But Needs Improv.	Unsatis- factory.	Not Observed	Not Applicable
a. The course content is up to date and appropriate.	✓
b. The course content is taught in an approach that is acceptable to the discipline	✓
c. The class segment observed and any materials furnished were pertinent to the course description.	✓
d. The class is taught at an appropriate level.	✓

Comment on the course content and the subject knowledge of the instructor.

This class is basic training in dance. Stacy puts her students through some pretty rough pieces, but never in a harmful way to their bodies. Clearly well-prepped and able to show the students how to do it, and fight to create a professional space + identity among the students. And by the end of each class we can see the results.

SB